TODAY'S WORD: Divine Order

AFFIRMATION: I recognize the order of the Universe within and around me.

A helpful exercise in recognizing order is to imagine an aesthetically pleasing object that exemplifies order and symmetry. Nature provides numerous examples. The spirals of a seashell or the structure of a honeycomb are pictorial affirmations of order.

This exercise helps me realign with the Truth of my being and affirm that I, too, am part of divine intelligence and order. I know from experience that times of distraction or hardship will pass and divine order will prevail. Being spiritually aware, working in harmony with the Universe, and trusting in divine order does not mean there will not be problems. However, it offers assurance that guidance will come, and I will learn from and overcome challenges creatively and confidently.

SACRED TEXT: "For God is a God not of disorder but of peace."

1 Corinthians 14:33

INSPIRATIONAL QUOTES:

"Gratitude unlocks the fullness of life. It turns what we have into enough, and more. It turns denial into acceptance, chaos to order, confusion to clarity. It can turn a meal into a feast, a house into a home, a stranger into a friend."

- Melody Beattie

"You have to go through the falling down in order to learn to walk. It helps to know that you can survive it. That's an education in itself." - Carol Burnett

"Happiness is not a matter of intensity but of balance, order, rhythm and harmony." - Thomas Merton
